

Hand and Wrist Cadaver Lab

Synopsis of Cluster Project

- A project with students from the Health & Human Enrichment Cluster
- Eleven students were involved in this cluster project
  - Ten Athletic Training Students from both the Undergraduate and Graduate Athletic Training Programs
  - One student from the Exercise & Sport Physiology Major
- Students had an interactive dissection experience under the supervision of hand surgeon Dr. Robert Heaps from the New Hampshire Orthopedic Center
- Learning outcomes
  - Students were introduced to the cadaver dissection process
  - Students identified specific anatomical structures
  - Students applied the evidence learned in the classroom
  - Students gained an understanding of interprofessional education

