Hello everyone,

Attached is a current schedule and list of attendees for the “PSU Connections Partner Fair” being held Tuesday, February 7th from 10-3 in the Hage Room. In addition to the folks listed here, we’re expecting many more visitors who have not yet RSVP’d.

Remember that it is not too late to highlight your work - if you’d like to say a few words or share a poster or other materials, let me know ASAP.

I’ve also re-attached the FAQ that should answer any questions you may have about the event. It’s also not too late to invite any external partners from your department, center, cluster, or program. If you’d like to invite someone, you can either extend an invitation yourself, or you can contact Nina Domina at nldomina@plymouth.edu for help.

And most importantly, please feel free to send along your students, or even stop by with your class.

Cheers,
Ben
