Overview

The Barnstormers, located in the bucolic village of Tamworth, NH, is one of the longest-running professional summer theatres in the country. The company was founded in 1931 by Francis Cleveland, the youngest son of President Grover Cleveland, Francis's wife Alice and their friend Ed Goodnow – all of whom were involved with theatre on Broadway. Over eighty years later, their legacy continues. Today, The Barnstormers is one of three Equity theatres in New Hampshire and provides the region with brilliant summer theatre.

Deathtrap

Deathtrap, the smash-hit comedy-thriller that enjoyed a four-year run on Broadway, offers audiences a night of intrigue, wit, and. Of course, murder. What will Sidney Bruhl, a faltering writer of stage thrillers, do to finally have another success? Will he commit murder? This offering is the first for the new Silver Summer Dinner Theatre.

The comedy-thriller focuses on Sidney Bruhl, a writer of Broadway thrillers who has not had a hit in over a decade. Bruhl receives a new script from a young writer named Clifford Anderson. The name of the play is Deathtrap, and Sidney is sure it will be a major smash. The older, cash-strapped writer has become so desperate to have another success that he indicates to his wife, Myra, that he may kill the young writer, steal his script, and put his own name on it.

Things get very tense when Sidney invites Clifford to his home to discuss his new play. Add to this mix, the antics of the clairvoyant Helga Ten Dorp and the intrusions of Sidney's lawyer Porter Milgrim, and you have a great evening of summer entertainment. Deathtrap is filled with comedy, surprises, deceptions, and, of course, murder. June 30, 2018 - 15, 2018
